Washington DC.

Dear Sir,

On the July 28th 1958 I was informed by my employer that I was terminated from employment due to the fact that for last six months I was unable to produce sufficient business, which may cover the salary drawing by me. As soon as I was informed about this I started to look for another job and I shall inform you if shall find a place in near future.

About establishing my real date of birth and so on I am looking forward to be interviewed, and I am very thankful for your sincere interest in it.

Thanking you in advance

Sincerely Yours
